The Marlboro Community Center

The newly formed Marlboro Community Center and Library, part of the Marlboro Alliance, will be opening soon on the first floor of the Marlboro Meeting House. We'll kick off with an Election Day Open House. Tuesday, November 6th from 4 to 7 pm.

It's been a very busy summer getting things ready for our grand opening! The space has received a bright new coat of paint. The bathroom has been updated to include a handicap accessible toilet and hand rails. Some electrical upgrades have happened, including new switches in the bathroom and several new outlets in the main room. The back storage room has been transformed into a new library and shared office for the Marlboro Alliance, also freshly painted and getting new outlets. Some furnishings have been purchased or generously donated, for both spaces and we are ready to open our doors!

We are also excited to announce we have hired Gemma Ollis as our new Coordinator. Gemma lives in Marlboro with her husband and daughter. She knows the Marlboro Meeting House well, having worked at the Meeting House School, and bringing her daughter to play group, there. Gemma says, "Playgroup was a place where we could go knowing it would be warm, close to home, and filled with our new friends." Now she hopes to give that feeling of belonging to our town through our new Community Center, which will include a library, a cafe and cozy space for reading and relaxing. High speed internet will allow for working remotely to those who might find that useful. It will be a venue for events, senior lunches organized by Marlboro Cares, yoga, art classes, film nights, and many other exciting programs.

The Community Center will be open on Wednesdays and Fridays from noon to 5 pm, Saturdays from 9 to noon, and whenever events are happening. Check our calendar for events on the Marlboro Alliance website under Community Center. <https://sites.google.com/view/marlboroalliance/community-center?authuser=0>

Hope to see you at our Open House on Tuesday, November 6th from 4 pm to 7 pm. After you vote, come by and say hello, sip some cider, have a nibble of something yummy, and meet Gemma and the many volunteers getting the center up and running!

Marlboro School Fall Highlights

Association of Marlboro Parents (AMP) will be finishing their Social Justice Initiative this month. Stay tuned for activities and events that will ensue from this meaningful work. In addition, this year's AMP meetings will focus on supporting preschool and holding theme-based discussions. Some of these discussions will include our sports programs, food program and Agency of Education initiatives.

We are taking considerable steps towards improving the safety of our school. Some of these steps include cell phone boosters, an announcement system and keyless exterior locks, which have been subsidized by $20,000 in grants. The former recycling lot has been improved and is now where students are dropped off and picked up by the busses. In addition, the WCSU has spent this past year standardizing our emergency protocols with support from school safety consultants.

Field research continues to be an important component to our programming. Some examples from this year include: Brattleboro Museum, Camping at Mt. Mansfield, Black Mountain Day, Green Mountain Orchards, and Literary Festival event at Latchis Theater.

Enrollment as of October 1st - 95 PK-8

Coming Event:

Winter Music Concert: Tentatively planned for 12/19 at 6:00, Marlboro College's Whittemore Theater

Hogback Happenings

Late Fall on Hogback - Getting Ready for Winter

Friday, Nov 23, 1:00-4:00

Ski Slope Clean-Up Day

By now it's a tradition among those who like to clamber around the former Hogback Ski Area on skis and snowshoes during the winter. Spend the Friday afternoon after Thanksgiving on the mountain with us, clearing away blowdowns, cutting back brambles, trimming face slapping branches. We do just enough touching up to keep a ski-able line or two open on the old ski runs. "Earn Your Turns" is the motto of the human-powered ski movement (no lifts here!), and it applies to the necessary fall cleanup work as well as to climbing the mountain in order to ski down it. But please, don't go up there on your own to "help" by clearing. The work we do is carefully planned and meshes with other programs on the mountain, such as the wildlife habitat improvement project. Come help us on this special ski-focused work day.

We can use all levels of help, from chain sawyers to folks with brush cutters to people armed with loppers to able bodies to haul brush. Bring your own favorite tool or borrow one from our stash. Note that if you want to use a chainsaw or a brush cutter on Hogback, you must wear a full set of safety gear, including chaps, helmet, face/eye and hearing protection. If you don't have a set of your own we can loan you one. Meet in the parking lot on the south side of Route 9 between the gift shop and the white distillery building at 1:00.

Monday, December 31, 3:30-5:30

Last Sunset of the Year

Join us for a fun late afternoon trek to the fire tower to watch the last sunset of the year. You won't see the actual sunset unless you climb the fire tower to get above the trees, but if you do, what a view! Not only the sun dipping below the far hills to the west, but the glowing effect on the rolling forests to the north, south, and east. This summer Molly Stark State Park replaced the wooden steps on the fire tower with metal grating steps. That will make the climb much less slippery if there's snow. Thanks, Molly Stark!

If there's snow on the ground, this will be a snowshoe hike. Ski poles can come in handy because the well-loved Tower Trail can get icy from heavy use. No snow? We'll have a pleasant hike. Don't be late, because the sun won't wait! Meet at 3:30 in the parking lot near the white distillery building, on the south side of Route 9 just west of the gift shop. Are you borrowing snowshoes? Practice putting them on at home before you come, so that we don't have to linger in that windy parking lot figuring out how to adjust unfamiliar bindings as the sun slips lower and lower. Bring a flashlight for the return trip. We typically get back to the parking lot while there's still enough light from the long, lingering winter twilight to easily see our steps, but it's good to have a light source for unexpected situations.

Celebrating Veterans at the Veterans Day Luncheon

Monday November 12th, 12 o'clock
Marlboro Community Center

The Association of Marlboro Parents, Marlboro Elementary School and Marlboro Cares would like to invite all veterans living in Marlboro to a special Veterans Day Luncheon at the Marlboro Community Center on Veterans Day, November 12th, at 12 noon.

School children and veterans will have a chance to be together on this important holiday to celebrate the role that veterans play in our community and our country. This special program of recognition and appreciation for members of the armed services will include a program of musical entertainment, remembrances, and a delicious lunch with dessert.

To RSVP, or to volunteer to honor the veterans at this free event, please be in touch with Jude Robinson at 257-4215 or jrobinson@comingcleaninc.org.

from Marlboro Cares

Senior Lunches

Senior Lunches have moved to the new Marlboro Community Center at noon, still the first Fridays of the month. The next Senior Lunches will be November 2, and December 7, 2018 at noon. All residents of Marlboro over the age of 60 are cordially invited to attend and enjoy a delicious meal, catered by Lauren MacArthur. Come taste the food that has earned everyone's rave reviews. The cost continues to be only $3.00. As a bonus, the Town Library Committee is offering free books!

Reservations continue to be necessary, so that there will be enough food. Please call 258-3030 by the Monday before the Friday meal. For the next two months, call Monday, October 29th for Nov. 2nd meal and Monday, Dec. 3rd for the Dec. 7th meal. If you sign up to attend a meal and find you cannot make it, PLEASE call to cancel, as soon as possible to let Lauren know how much food to prepare. Rides to the meals are available by calling 258-3030 48 hours in advance.

Thank you, Marlboro College

Marlboro Cares extends a huge THANK YOU to Marlboro

Something New in Town!

The newly emerging Marlboro Community Center promises to have something for just about everyone, and here are some of the opportunities that may be of special interest to those of us who don't have young children, or indeed any children at home.

Have you ever wished for a warm, sunny, comfortable place in the middle of town to drop by for coffee or tea, read the papers, get the local news, have high speed internet, connection, meet up with friends, maybe play a good board game?

The Nursery school is no longer there, but a three or four year-old might be encouraged to come for regular visits to be read to, played with, or tell you stories.

How about a central location to gather information about events and services, check out a book, maybe take an exercise class or see a movie? For that matter, how about

College for hosting the Senior Lunches for the past four years. We are extremely grateful for the welcome we were given and the delicious meals in the warm atmosphere of the Coffee Shop. We also appreciated the opportunity of bringing town residents to the campus, as well as the various College staff educating us about all the College offers to residents. As we move to the Community Center, we leave the College venue with much gratitude.

Election Day Nov. 6th

Marlboro Cares encourages everyone to vote on election day, November 6th or vote early beginning now! Marlboro Cares is happy to provide rides to the polls. Please call our answer line 48 hours in advance to 258-3030. Remember Your Vote = Your Voice.

Continued Services

For information, rides, errands, or other non-emergency assistance and/or for referrals for assistance and services, please call Marlboro Cares at 258-3030. Someone will return your call within 24 hours.

hearing a talk or a reading given by a local authority – of which there are many in this town!

Would it help to know that the bathroom is now adult-accessible, no longer sized for 2 year olds? And quite possibly Marlboro Cares, or another entity, could arrange a ride to get there if transportation is a problem. Or maybe you could invite a neighbor to come with you.

The new Community Center can be all these things and more. Let's make it a central place to gather, get out of our houses for a bit and maybe even connect with new and old friends. It will only succeed if we make it a real part of our social lives. We Can Do This!

Look for info about the Open House on Election Day, November 6th from 4 to 7pm. You can Vote AND Celebrate!

from the Select Board

The Select Board meets at 5:00 PM every second and fourth Thursday at the Town Office, unless otherwise warned*.

The Select Board is pleased to announce that Andrew Richardson has been hired at the new Road Crew Member. Andrew brings wonderful enthusiasm and energy to the Road Crew. You'll see him working around town with a ready smile!

Two SeVEDS Representatives visited the Select Board in late August and gave updates on new SeVEDS initiatives such as the following: an internship program, a new microentrepreneur loan fund, the Connectivity Summit, Comprehensive Economic Development Strategies, and a southern Vermont marketing campaign to encourage people to move here to fill jobs. They are working closely with Marlboro College. They also spoke extensively about their work around connectivity within southern VT.

The biodiversity study in the Hogback Mountain Conservation Area has been taking place throughout the summer and fall. Look for details about the study in the next issue of the Mixer!

Select Board members and Emergency Management Director, Aaron Walsh, participated in an Incident Command System training, taught by Vermont Emergency Management, on 10/10/18.

Public Wifi Improvements

Dear Townsfolk,

We are pleased to spread the word about two new and improved public wifi options in the center of town!

1. The public wifi connection at the Marlboro Town Office has been significantly upgraded. We now offer a 10 Mbps download and 5 Mbps upload connection speed in front of and within the office. This free internet access point is provided by the town to anyone who needs a bit of faster 'net from time to time. (Note: a few specific streaming sites such as Netflix are throttled down, so using the town office specifically for streaming will be impractical). Special thanks to Forrest and the Town Office staff of helping to facilitate this improvement!

2. The Marlboro Community Center is now offering free

Sarah Grieco has stepped forward into the role of Green Up Day Coordinator! Thank you, Sarah! Also, many thanks to Carrie Kowalski, who has coordinated Green Up Day in Marlboro for the past several years.

The Conservation Commission is looking for new members. Please contact the Select Board or Conservation Commission Chair, Ashley Bies (marlborovtcc@gmail.com) if you are interested in serving on this important commission.

Please see the following updates from Tyler Gibbons, Vice-Chair of the Select Board, about public wifi and recycling.

*Please note that the regular Select Board meeting for the week of Thanksgiving has been moved to Tuesday, November 20, 2018, (this is subject to change). Check for updates on the Municipal Calendar on the town website.

The public is welcome to attend Select Board meetings and we value your input. There is always a ten-minute period at the beginning of every meeting for unscheduled open public comment. Contact the Board by email at marlboroselectboard@gmail.com or by post at Select Board, PO Box 518, Marlboro, VT 05344. Please contact Lauren MacArthur (laurenbmac@gmail.com or 802-264-5306) or a select board member at least 48 hours prior to a select board meeting to be added to the agenda. Visit the Town website: marlborovt.us.

wifi (the Center is not yet open to the public, but the wifi connection is up and running and accessible from the parking lot outside the church building). The speed of this connection is approximately 20 Mbps down and 10 Mbps up. A huge thank you to the Community Center for making this public wifi service available!

These upgrades represent a small but meaningful step towards our goal of helping bring faster internet service to Marlboro. We welcome you to make use of either wifi service anytime! Please email me at tgselectboard@gmail.com if you have any thoughts or questions.

Very Best,

Recycling Update

Dear Townsfolk,

Many of you have been wondering how our community has been doing with our new recycling set up. I am pleased to report that, according to our hauler TAM, we are doing very well indeed! Since the beginning of the year, we have recycled 23.4 tons of co-mingle containers, and 28.1 tons of mixed paper. As such, we have both helped recycle lots of material and are on course to stay within our budget of $7500 for the year.

Better yet, TAM reports that “Marlboro does an excellent job of making sure the correct materials are being recycled.” A sample co-mingle container that they checked for us yielded greater than 90% proper recyclable materials (90% is the goal). With the exception of some plastic bags mixed in, they said the contents were exactly what they are looking for from a co-mingle bin.

So, first, let me congratulate you all for doing a super job! Also, let me sincerely thank, once again, David Elliott and the road crew for helping to manage and maintain the bins and for communicating with TAM!

Okay, feeling good? Now for some notes and reminders:

1. Junior High bottle redemption change: The junior high class is closing the Redemption Center in the school's lower parking lot. If people would like to continue to donate to the junior high's field research trips with their returnables, it would be greatly appreciated, and they can be left in the junior high's name at two redemption centers: 1) Putney Road Redemption Center, 693 Putney Rd 2) Discount Beverage & Redemption, 157 Marlboro Rd, West Brattleboro. Please do not leave returnables outside the containers at our Recycling Center. Bring them to a redemption center or add them to the regular recycling in the co-mingle container.

2. Break down cardboard boxes: Please remember to break your cardboard boxes down! Each flattened box saves the town money and is a joy to behold, like a beautiful, square paper pancake. If you notice boxes in the bin that are not broken down, help a town out and take a moment to break a few down!

3. Plastic Bags: not cool or groovy. Please, please, please do not put plastic bags into either the co-mingle containers or the mixed paper bin. Plastic bags can be recycled at the Brattleboro Food Coop or should be disposed of elsewhere. If you have bundled your recyclables in a plastic bag, empty the contents and take the plastic bag away with you.

4. Trash: thanks but no thanks. As always, please be reminded that the recycling center is in no way a dump site; trash should never be left in the containers or anywhere around the site. We all own this site and are responsible for its success; thanks for your thoughtful consideration here!

5. Road crew in charge: David is the sole communication point between the town and TAM. He determines when the bins are full and contacts TAM at the right time for haulage. Please do not contact TAM yourself or other town officials if you think the bins are full. If the bins are still at the site, there's more room in them! You can find it!

6. Back to warm and fuzzy: Thank you all again for your expert use of the Marlboro Recycling Center. Terrific job! Here's to another year of productive recycling!

Marlboro Town Library

Things are moving full steam ahead in our small town library. It is beautifully painted, we have some shelving and furniture and lots of books. Thanks to all who have donated. We plan to have a reception for all donors in the near future. We still have to pick some books up from people who are keeping them for us, but at this point I think we are putting a hold on donations until we know what we need.

Thanks to Jonathan Biss, as well, and to David and Michelle Holtzapfel and the BMC for helping us with our fund-raising concert. We made in excess of $4000 after expenses and this will be used to purchase new books and other materials for the library.

We still need to set up the computers, catalog the books, and organize them on the shelves before we open. This should happen by early to mid December. There will be signs up at the post office, notifications in all the little libraries and online, in the Friday Notes and any place else we can let you know about it. Also, look on the message board outside the Community Center. We will be open whenever there is an even happening at the Community Center, Saturday mornings and a few other designated times, once we get feedback from you all on when those times should be. If you happen to be at the Community Center for an event, please poke your head in to take a look, even if we re not up and ready to go.

If you have any questions or want to volunteer and have not already spoken with one of us, please contact anyone on the library board: Andy Horton, Felicia Tober, Gemma Ollis, Cathy Osman, Hilary Duggan, Lissa Harris.

2018—19 Marlboro Alliance Scholarship Appeal

We are deeply grateful for the generosity of the 51 donors who contributed $3950 to the 2017-18 appeal, and the Marlboro Alliance, which granted $1100 from the General Fund. Total grants of $5050 helped 21 students from 14 families to attend summer programs and pursue higher education.

We're an all-volunteer organization, so every dollar you give is invested in the future of our community's students. If you've been meaning to give, please make this the year you help these deserving students, one of whom told us, "To be an active citizen means to offer something back to your community. I am so privileged to live in a place that has accepted and fostered my will to contribute."

Prepare Your Pets for Winter

By Peggy Tiffany – Marlboro Animal Control Officer

In many areas, winter is a season of bitter cold and numbing wetness. Make sure your four-footed family members stay safe and warm by following these simple guidelines from the Humane Society of the United States:

- Keep pets sheltered
- Bundle up and wipe down
- Remove common poisons

Keep pets sheltered

• Keep your pets inside with you and your family. Under no circumstances should pet cats be left outdoors, even if they roam outside during other seasons. Dogs are happiest when taken out frequently for walks and exercise, but kept inside the rest of the time. Don't leave pets outdoors when the temperature drops.

• If your dog is outdoors much of the day for any reason, they must be protected by a dry, draft-free shelter that is large enough to allow them to move comfortably, but small enough to hold in body heat. The floor should be raised a few inches from the ground and covered with cedar shavings or straw. The doorway should be covered with waterproof burlap or heavy plastic.

• Routinely check your pet's water dish to make certain the water is fresh and unfrozen. Use plastic food and water bowls; when the temperature is low, your pet's tongue can stick and freeze to metal.

Bundle up, wipe down

• No matter what the temperature is, windchill can threaten a pet's life. Exposed skin on noses, ears and paw pads are at risk for frostbite and hypothermia during extreme cold snaps. For this reason, short-haired dogs often feel more comfortable wearing a sweater — even during short walks.

• Rock salt and other chemicals used to melt snow and ice can irritate the pads of your pet's feet. Wipe all paws with a damp towel before your pet licks them and irritates their mouth.

Remove common poisons

• Antifreeze is a deadly poison, but it has a sweet taste that may attract animals and children. Wipe up any antifreeze spills immediately and keep it, like all household chemicals, out of reach. Coolants and antifreeze made with propylene glycol are less toxic to pets, wildlife and family.

• Dogs are at particular risk of salt poisoning in winter due to the rock salt used in many areas — often when licking it from their paws after a walk. Store de-icing salt in a safe place and wipe your dog's paws, even after short walks. If your dog ingests rock salt, call a veterinarian immediately.

2018 Hunting Season

Please be aware that Rifle Deer Hunting Season begins on Saturday November 10th at sunrise and ends at sunset on November 25th. There is a wealth of information for the hunter and non-hunter alike at <https://vtfishandwildlife.com/>

If you walk in the woods, wear hunter orange or other bright colors. If you are a hunter, wearing hunter orange is not required by law in Vermont, but wearing it might save your life. Enjoy the November woods!
