Molly then described the Select Board's work from the last six months:

- Everyone thanks former Zoning Administrator Mary Sargent for her 19 years of service for the town.
- Updated town Road Sign Policy working with Road Foreman and e911 Coordinator Allan McLane.

- Currently the Road Ordinance is being worked on to make uniform guidelines for all people who are building new roads in town and looking at the possibility of declassifying certain sections of roads which have no year-round residents (sections of Stark Road & Old Hogback Road).
- Green Mountain Power has been doing extensive burial of their utilities on Ames Hill Road and the town is thankful for their efforts and culvert work that has been done, improving infrastructure.
- The former Hogback Mountain Ski Area First Aid building was demolished this last spring.
- Stratton Hill Road road improvements project and new ditching went well. Some friction with landowners has led to improved process for upcoming work on Ames Hill Road in summer 2026.
- Clarence Cook asked about the sick, dying ash trees from Emerald Ash Borer and Molly Welch described the plan in process.
- Forrest Holzapfel outlined the process of petitioning the local government as well as the calendar for the actions coming before the Town Meeting Election on March 3, 2026.
